

POST-MODULE – BEYOND THE BLACK/WHITE BINARY

Reflect, Write, Discuss

1. Has the Black/White Binary influenced your own life or learning in any way? If yes, how? If no, why do you think that is?
2. Have you every asked someone who is racially and/or ethnically ambiguous "where are really from?" How did they respond
 - a. Have you ever been asked? How did you respond?

Educate yourself on history & rights of other racial & ethnic groups

The Model Minority Myth

- Internalized racialism of positive stereotypes
DOI:10.1037/a0024183
- 'Model Minority' Myth Again Used As A Racial Wedge Between Asians And Blacks
- Asian American Middle-Class Before, During, & After the Great Recession

Islamophobia

- Muslims...still face negative views from the public
- The U.S., Muslims, and a Turbulent Post-9/11 World
- THE SEPTEMBER 11 BACKLASH - Human Rights Watch
- What It Meant To Be Muslim In America After 9/11
- Decades after 9/11...

Life

Undocumented

- Life Undocumented
- Podcast: My Undocumented Ass
- The Mental Health Implications of Growing Up Undocumented
- Understanding Trends in Hate Crimes Against Immigrants and Hispanic-Americans
- US immigration policy: A classic, unappreciated example of structural racism

What did you think about these groups before vs. after the research?

1. Asian Americans
2. Muslims
3. Undocumented Immigrants
4. LatinX Americans

What can you do to help dismantle the discrimination & hate that these groups continue to experience?

What other racial, cultural, ethnic, religious, etc. group do you not know much about?

Pick One & Research:

- History outside & inside of America
- Cultural customs
- Rights & roles in American society
- Authors, social media personas, podcasts, musicians, artists, actors, etc. to engage with